KANSAS CITY, Mo., – The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) is pleased to announce representatives from Cornerstone Caregiving presented a $50,000 donation to the VFW Foundation today in support of VFW programs. Additionally, Cornerstone Caregiving has led fundraising efforts totaling more than $50,000 to benefit VFW Posts in communities near their locations.

A leader in the senior home care industry with more than 150 locations in 33 states, Cornerstone Caregiving prides itself as a community of dedicated professionals with a shared mission of providing exceptional in-home care services to seniors. From rallying support to improve veterans' accessibility and coordinating donations for wheelchair ramps, to providing vital disaster relief assistance in the wake of fires and other natural disasters, Cornerstone Caregiving has made improving the lives of veterans and their families a top priority.

"The VFW Foundation is honored to receive this donation, which will help us continue to serve countless military and veteran families during their times of need," said VFW Adjutant General Dan West. "It's encouraging to work with great companies like Cornerstone Caregiving, whose dedication to honoring and giving back to our nation's military and veteran families aligns so well with our own."

"Cornerstone Caregiving is proud to serve veterans across the United States," said Cornerstone Caregiving Founder Michael Hillman. "There is no greater honor than to care for those who cared for our country in the best way possible."

Established in 1996, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Foundation is the official 501(c)(3) of the VFW. It exists to provide financial resources to the vital assistance programs of the VFW. Through its strategic relationships with supporters, the VFW Foundation fills in
