

VFW Gears Up to Meet in 'Derby City'

This year marks the fourth time in VFW's history that members will convene in the city of Louisville, Kentucky, to conduct the important business of the organization

May 31, 2024

The 125th VFW National Convention will take place from July 27-Aug. 1 at the Kentucky International Convention Center in downtown Louisville.

Convention housing opened on March 18, giving attendees an extra month to register. Please note that shuttle service will not be available this year during the convention.

While the convention's main purpose is to allow VFW delegates to vote on resolutions, attend workshops and hear from prominent speakers, it also offers a time for camaraderie. Below is just a small sampling of all that the city of Louisville has to offer for those attending this year's convention.

Be sure to check out <https://www.vfw.org/media-and-events/125th-vfw-national-convention> for the latest on convention news.

From items used by Babe Ruth to lifelike sculptures of some of the best to ever play, there is no shortage of history to witness in the museum gallery. Hank Aaron's bat used to hit his 700th home run in 1973 is on display. The museum's "Hold a Piece of History" exhibit features at least one bat from every major league baseball team. "Where Wood Meets Wonder" provides an opportunity to see how baseball's most iconic baseball bats are made.

Muhammad Ali Center

144 N. Sixth Street

Louisville, KY 40202

Phone: (502) 574-2992

Take a step back in time aboard the Belle of Louisville, the last remaining authentic Mississippi River-style steamboat left in the world. Or see the "River City" onboard the Belle's sister vessel, the Mary M. Miller. Either way, experience Louisville and the Ohio River in a scenic way.

Cherokee Park

45 Cochran Hill Road

Louisville, KY 40206

Phone: (502) 574-7275

Acquired in 1891, Cherokee Park is nearly 390 acres of beauty. Open from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m., the park features a 2.3-mile Scenic Loop, with separate lanes for vehicle traffic (one-way) and recreational users. The park provides a pastoral setting amid rolling hills, open meadows and woodlands of the Beargrass Creek valley. For vehicles on the Scenic Loop (or recreational users moving in the direction of vehicle traffic), the secret to navigating the park is to keep turning left to stay in the park or keep turning right to leave the park.
